UPPERLAKE SUFFERS HEAVY FIRE LOSS

BLAZE STARTS IN GARAGE AND SPREADS TO ADJOINING BUILDINGS—LOSS ESTIMATED AT $25,000 WITH SMALL INSURANCE

A fire at Upperlake Wednesday evening about six o'clock destroyed the general merchandise store of Frank Howe, the garage building of Mr. Scott, occupied by Pope & Johnson, and the residence of Mr. Scott at the rear of the garage. There were also two machines in the garage which went with the buildings, one a Stanley Steamer and the property of Indian Agent Tibbets and a car belonging to Cleve Tallman. The blaze started in the garage with quite a heavy wind, and with the oils and gasoline as feed for the flames, the buildings were soon destroyed. A large crowd gathered from the town and surrounding valley and after a hard fight managed to save other buildings which were threatened by the onsweeping flames. Mr. Evans who drives one of Miller's auto stages, was in town at the time of the fire and states that a tank of gasoline was blown high in the air and that the last he saw of it, it was headed for Colusa county and still going.

The stock in Howe's store was valued at about $8000, and together with all the buildings destroyed with the two autos, the loss is placed at about $25,000, partly covered by insurance.

HOP BUYERS IN TOWN

John Dugan, representing C. C. Donovan and G. A. Proctor, of Santa Rosa, were in town this week collecting hop samples from the different growers. Both gentlemen report the market very quiet at present but hope to be able to make an offer after returning to Santa Rosa and their samples inspected.

HUNTERS RETURN FROM OREGON

Henry Hopper, Ed. Porter, Robert Hutchison and Gene Berryhill returned Sunday evening from a three week trip to Lakeview Oregon, and that vicinity, where they went on a hunting and fishing expedition. Each report having killed the limit of mule tail deer even to Porter, which would denote that they are very plentiful in that section, and much tamer than the wily bucks of Mendocino county. They also say that many antelopes were seen in that section and that they run in bands of from two hundred to five hundred, but as the law is closed until 1920 on them, they did not bring any horns back as trophies of the hunt, although several fine sets of antlers of the deer killed now adorn the walls of the Richelieu.

The trip was made in Mr. Hopper's Stanley steamer to Lakeview and from there into the isolated section where game abounds by horseback. The distance covered in all was about a thousand miles and the only trouble encountered was on the return near Willits when Mr. Porter says the "diaphragm went on the blink and caused spontaneous combustion."

CONVICTS GO NORTH FOR HIGHWAY WORK

Clad in grey-blue uniforms, fourty-four San Quentin convicts passed through this city Monday on a special car attached to the regular north bound train. They will be employed on the state highway in Leggett valley on the south fork of Eel river and are the first in the history of California to be sent out from prison in this manner on the credit system for work.

Those who made up the gang for this work were picked from a list of 200 applicants, due care being used in the selection to secure those with the best records. They were all fine specimens of manhood and looked to be able to perform their labors well after being "worked out" and becoming accustomed to their daily vocations. The convicts were in the custody of six guards, and in passing through here the windows of the car were left open and the prisoners kept their heads out and seemed to be enjoying Mendocino county's fresh air.

TIMBER CASE OCCUPIES THE SUPERIOR COURT

The case of Mrs. Ada Thompson vs. Otto Newman, both residents of the Comptche section, occupied the Superior court yesterday. This is the third time the case has been on trial and is brought by Mrs. Thompson to force Newman to dispose of timber on the property of the plaintiff. At the second trial three arbitrators were appointed by the court and the timber on the property was appraised at $190. Newman claims that his timber is worth $4000, and for which sum he seeks. The case has not been finished.

"Citikin" Writes of Our Day at Jewel City

The Ukiah Day exercises at the Exposition in San Francisco last Saturday were a success from every view point and the great enthusiasm manifested by the throng of 500 people toward the success of the day, composed of present Mendocino county residents and former residents of the county, showed that whether living here or not, they still had the interest of old Mendocino at heart.

The following regarding the exercises is written by "Citikin," who has kept the readers of the Press well informed in the past on news of general interest relative to visits at the Great Exposition.

Dear Ukiakin:

The first thing that met our eyes as we walked through the main entrance to the Fair on Ukiah Day was the skullcap and deer horn head piece adorning Dr. Albert Atkins, who was gorgeously decorated with Ukiah buttons and yellow "frogs", dealing them out with both hands.

Say! that little brown eyed wife of his deserves a bronze plaque from Ukiah for bringing such a booster into the town family!

She was right there too, greeting people and working like the little enthusiast and home lover she is. The capable, lively warm-hearted little Secretary of the Mendocino Society, was flying around with a gorgeous bunch of dahlias and chrysanthemums, greeting everyone; the familiar and kindly face of Mrs. Sturtevant, whom all Mendocino knows and loves, was beaming goodwill and greeting. She and her old time neighbor, Mrs. Thatcher, of Hopland, chatting between times.

George Anderson was kept busy shaking hands, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jamison, with the fine looking young woman, we old timers found hard to recognize as the baby we once knew, Miss Gertrude, is very happy at Miss Head's school in Berkeley, and we feel Ukiah has a fitting representation there in her.

Miss Carre Ganter, Mrs. Fred Haady, Mrs. Kendal, now of Berkeley, the McNabs and many others, formed groups all one broad smile at the huge green frog, who was the center of all eyes, with the "deer" Dr. Atkins.

As you Ukiah people brought one of your own warm mornings along, said frog had to take off his mask and gasp for breath occasionally. By the way, we found no one who knew said frog. It was but a few moments till the photographer literally herded the gathering together, finally securing a remarkably good picture of the large group, then the crowd took up their garlands, fruit and flowers, forming long lines of as jolly a crowd of home lovers as has yet celebrated at the big Fair.—

Mrs. John Brown, trim and pretty; Jolly Dr. Sue Harris Hamilton, Carl Purdy, Dr. Carl Hoag and many others superintendent the lines; Pr. C. E. Peirce was hustled into service, and as the band struck up and we moved off, a distinct indication of cake walking struck some parts of the lines.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jamison were in the automobile line, as was Dr. Carl Hoag with a gayly decorated auto of hops and roses.

This good son of Mendocino deserves mention, as I overheard him explaining to a group of friends later that he had found his own auto in pieces all over the floor of the garage the night before when he went to decorate it, so had phoned to a young lady friend who came to his rescue and Ukiah Days', with the loan of her car, which was

Marshal Dixon Killed Late Wednesday Night

Officer of Point Arena Shot Down by William Harvey—Murderer Barricades Himself in Home for a Time and Later Surrenders to Neighbor.

Word reached here at mid-night Wednesday of the murder of Marshal John Dixon, of Point Arena by Bill Harvey, also a resident of the coast town.

It seems that Harvey went into the saloon of Syd Groshong in an intoxicated condition and caused somewhat of a rough house. He was told to leave by the proprietor, but stoutly refused and ordered a drink. This was denied him and he quickly pulled a pistol and leveled it upon Groshong and told him to produce the bottle.

At this moment Marshal Dixon happened along and started in the saloon, and had just stepped over the threshhold when Harvey wheeled and shot him, without a word of warning, killing him instantly. After the shooting Harvey ran to his home with the smoking revolver in his hands, and barring the door, called from the windows and defied anyone to take him in custody. After keeping his pursuers at bay for sometime he finally gave up, disarming himself and came out of the house.

The murdered man was about 50 years of age and had been a resident of Point Arena for several years, a greater part of which time he has held the office of marshal, and is well known by many residents of this city. Harvey is an employee at the blacksmith shop of Newton Howe and is said to be a very peaceful citizen, and only of a quarrelsome nature when under the influence of liquor.

Dist. Attorney McCowen and Sheriff Byrnes left for Greenwood yesterday morning to be present at the preliminary hearing before Judge C. M. Walker, Judge Reinking, of Point Arena, being absent from town. Clifford Davidson accompanied them to act as stenographer.

RETURN GAME FOR LAKEPORT SUNDAY

A game between the Ukiah and the Lakeport teams is scheduled for next Sunday on the local diamond. The Ukiah boys have the lineup which defeated Geyserville a couple of weeks ago and the game Sunday should be one of the best of the season. It must be remembered that Lakeport has defeated Ukiah in one game this year, but the latter's team was a mixed bunch and very few of the regulars. The nice team work of the Lake county boys which was witnessed here, must not be overlooked, and the score Sunday at the conclusion of the game should be very close.

The baseball season is drawing to a close and the fans should turn out and help support the boys who have been at a great expense during the past games in getting visiting teams and for the upkeep of the diamond. This would encourage them in getting a team together next year, which we hope, would meet with better success than the present nine has.

The following is the lineup for Sunday's game:

Ukiah—Van Dyke, P, Gilland C, L. Ruddock S. S., Wilson 1st B, Mockler 2nd B, Merritt (Skeeter) 3rd B, Eilers R. F., Davidson C. F., E. Ruddock L.F.

Lakeport—B. Patton P, Pool C, E. Hendricks S. S., W. Hendricks 1st B, W. Ransdell 2nd B, Meadows 3rd B., C. Bacon R. F., R. Shinn C. F., R. Patten L. F.

HEARING AT WILLITS TUESDAY AFTERNOON

Attorneys H. L. Preston and Chas. Kasch went to Willits Tuesday afternoon, Mr. Preston to represent John Warren and Mr. Kasch, George Pappas at a hearing before Referee D'Acanda, of the Industrial Accident Commission.

Pappas was cutting wood for Warren on his ranch near Willits last April, when a steel wedge split and a part of it struck Pappas on the hand, severing one of the tendons on his index finger.

Mr. Warren took Pappas to a hospital at Willits and told the physician to give him the best of attention. Pappas was not able to use the finger for a few weeks and took the matter of compensation up with the State Commission. The Commission instructed the parties to settle the matter between themselves, but being unable to do so, the hearing at Willits resulted.

Mr. Warren claims he has made a substantial settlement upon Pappas and that he is willing for the Commission to settle the difficulty.

It developed at the hearing that if Pappas was cutting wood for Warren for the purpose of clearing the land so that it can be farmed, he will be classed as a farm laborer and will not be entitled to any award at the hands of the Commission, as farm laborers are exempt from benefits.

Mrs. J. Milne and family returned to their home in Petaluma Monday.

Exciting Chase After Bold Robber Gang; 1 Captured

The robbery of the section house at Laughlin last Friday afternoon and the unsuccessful attempt to enter the postoffice at Calpella about 12:30 Saturday morning has kept Sheriff Byrnes hot on the trail since with added forces of Sheriff Smith of Sonoma county and deputies joining him at Asti Sunday evening.

The robbery of the section house occurred about 11:30 Friday morning when three men entered the house and appropriated clothing and articles valued at several dollars. They were seen by one of the section hands, who had a very good description of them and came down on the afternoon train to notify the sheriff. The officer suspected that the men would continue down the railroad track, so sent the section hand, who knew them, with a friend down to watch the track near the local depot Friday night.

During the night an attempt was made to enter the postoffice at Calpella, when a front window was broken out. The noise of the falling glass aroused the postmaster who lived next door and after firing several shots succeeded in frightening the robbers away. Sheriff Byrnes was immediately called and went to Calpella where his blood hound was used and took the track of the men at the postoffice which led south toward Ukiah.

After getting the direction in which the robbers had started, the sheriff feeling sure that they would walk into the arms of the two men watching on the track, provided that they beat him down here, returned where he had left his men and found that the three hunted men had made their appearance all right and that one had been captured, while the other two ran away when ordered to stop, and are now being sought by the officers of both counties. The arrested man gave his name as Harry Nelson and his place of residence as Eureka, and was wearing a coat which had been taken from the section house at Ridgewood, saying

LADIES OF THE ASSOCIATION MEET MONDAY AFTERNOON

The Parent-Teachers Association of the Grammar School will hold their regular meeting on next Monday afternoon, Sept. 27th, at 4 p. m. The annual election of officers takes place then, and it is hoped that much interest will be taken in the work this year. The children and their welfare are very important indeed and a hearty cooperation on the part of parents and teachers would mean much. The regular program will be dispensed with and a discussion of the work for the coming year will take its place.

Fish Case Dismissed at Preliminary Tuesday

The preliminary examination of District Attorney McCowen, who was charged by Superintendent Shibley of the spawning station at Eel River with fishing within the 50-foot limit of the fish ladder, was held in the local justice court Tuesday and the case was dismissed by Judge Crockett. It was alleged in the complaint that the district attorney had violated the law of the fish commission last April, and the fact that the case has hung fire so long would seem that the commission have been agitated on to make the arrest and thus endeavor to discredit the prosecutor of the county.

The district attorney admitted having stood within the 50-foot limit, but had hooked a large trout outside, and in playing with the fish with several feet of line out, the line had been carried to a few feet of the ladder. Mr. McCowen then knew that he was within the prohibited territory, so the fish was dislodged from the hook and not taken from the water.

Attorney Duncan for the district attorney contended that the descipile of Isaac Walton was fishing, not where he stood, but where the hook was nibbled by the bait. Attorney Duke for the prosecution could not figure it that way, but Mr. Duncan got by with his point, so after a short deliberation by the Judge, he did not deem it necessary on what evidence had been offered, to hold McCowen for further trial.

NEW ASSISTANT FOR LOCAL SAVINGS BANK

William Bromley has accepted a position in the Savings Bank as assistant cashier, Chester McKay having resigned. Mr. Bromley will only devote a part of his time at the bank, while his duties at the electrical plant will receive the same able management. The new assistant is credited with being very proficient in clerical work and no doubt will make good as a cashier.

BUYS MEYERS PROPERTY

Charles J. Bagnall, late resident of Sacramento has purchased the Oliver Meyers ranch near Hopland. He is representing the Pioneer Fruit Co., of Sacramento, and while on business for them here last season was greatly impressed with the future of the Hopland section, with the result that he purchased the above property.

The Meyers property is planted to Bartlett pears and is one of the best orchards in the county. The fruit from the ranch this year commanded the highest market price.

ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY

Deputy Sheriff Clay arrested Pete Hodson and Tom Peterson last evening and the two men are booked on a burglary charge. They broke into the building of James Stitt in the rear of the Casabonne restaurant, and are said to have taken several articles of value belonging to a couple of Italians living there.

FIRST DANCE THURS. EVENING

The "K" Club composed of several of the local young ladies has been recently organized and the club gave their first dance last Thursday evenings at Cleland's hall. About 50 couples were present and a very enjoyable time reported. It is the intention of the young ladies to give these dances quite frequently during the winter months, and owing to the success of their initiative ball, no doubt will enjoy large crowds of the younger set.

BETTER OUTLOOK FOR GRAPE MEN

DURING THE PAST TWO DAYS THE WINE ASSOCIATION IS OFFERING BETTER PRICES—PICKING STARTED THIS WEEK.

The wine grape situation has kept the growers in a state of great uncertainty until within the last day or two. It was announced by the wine interests some months ago that, owing to the federal excise tax of 8c per gallon and the proposed increase of 55c per gallon in the excise tax on brandy used in the fortification of sweet wines, the manufacture and sale of wine has been seriously interfered with and that it was impossible to say whether any price could be obtained for wine grapes of the 1915 vintage. The California Wine Association had only one contract in this valley; for $15 per ton which had until 1918 to run but which contained a clause giving the Association the right to cancel "provided any new law of the United States or of California should, in the opinion of its General Manager, seriously affect the making or marketing of wine." About four months ago the holder of this contract received notice that his contract was cancelled. Intimations were also given out that certain other contracts would not be fulfilled, though without this clause.

This situation left the growers in a very gloomy frame of mind and this was intensified when they received a proposition from the wineries after the harvest was commenced that they should deliver their grapes and receive next March 120 gallons of wine for each ton of grapes, the winery charging thereafter 1 gallon per ton per month for storage and other charges and the grower assuming the risk of fluctuation in the wine market. A little later, an offer of $6 per ton for grapes at Ukiah, payable in three installments without interest in 3, 6 and 9 months did not improve the outlook.

On Wednesday something put unwonted ginger into the grape situation and the cash price jumped to $10 while $12 was offered, if the growers would take it in three payments of 3, 6 and 9 months. The outlook now is that even a better price will be reached before the end of the season. Speculation is rife as to the cause of the sudden change of front but at least two elements entered into it. One was the refusal of the growers to deliver at the suggested price, it having been discovered that the grapes were worth much more than $6 for the purpose of hog food, and the grower being disinclined to take a chance when the wine men themselves largely control the price of wine. The other factor was the entry of the Healdsburg independent wineries into the local field in consequence of a shortage in the crop in that vicinity. Whether there was any other exciting cause or not, the local grape growers are much more interested in the harvest of their crop than they were a week ago.

Picking commenced throughout this section during the week, and besides the low price, the growers have to contend with a much smaller crop than last year. The price paid last season was $16 per ton.

FIRST CLASS DIARY FOR UKIAH VALLEY

Lloyd Wallace, one of the progressive farmers of this section, announces that by early next spring he will have one of the finest dairy ranches in the county. Work has already been commenced on the construction of two barns to house his stock and it is his intention to start with about thirty-five cows. He has several acres of the finest river bottom land for the raising of alfalfa and to be used as pasture. Mr. Wallace was a resident of Humboldt county, one of the leading dairy sections of the state for several years, and thoroughly understands the dairying business. A first class dairy for the valley should be welcome news to the many residents of Ukiah who are not possessed of the bovine quadruped.

Mrs. Annie Peterson of Comptche was brought over yesterday by Constable Patton of Mendocino on an insanity charge.

ADMINISTRATION ADMITS WAR HAS BENEFICIAL EFFECT ON AMERICAN INDUSTRY

(Special Correspondence)

Washington, Sept. 22—Directly reversing the statements of Secretary of Commerce Redfield that revival of American industry was not due to war orders, the Dept. of Commerce has just given out a statement concluding with the assertion that "surveying the whole field, it may justly be said that the world's conflict has been of unmeasured value to American industry as a whole."

The same statement contains practical admissions of the soundness of the protective tariff principle. The Department's bulletin says: "In a more or less uncomfortable way, we have suddenly been brought to recognize the unwisdom, the folly, of shipping vast amounts of the crude material of our farms, forests, and mines 3,000 miles across the ocean, and buying it back in a manufactured form, at a vastly enhanced price. We have likewise come to recognize the absurdity of allowing many natural products of the tropics, of South America, of the far East, to find their way to Europe, and of paying foreign intelligence and skill to transform them into articles of daily need in our lives."

This attitude now taken by a Department under the control of a Democratic Administration is exactly what Republicans have contended for from the foundation of the party. During every Democratic Administration, we have shipped raw material abroad and brought it back in manufactured form at a vastly increased price. We were doing exactly that under the present Democratic tariff law, until the European War intervened and served as a protective wall to cut off foreign imports.

Probably nothing that has come out of the Department of Commerce will serve more to embarass the Democratic party in the coming campaign than this statement expressly acknowledging the vital importance of manufacturing goods at home. The Department points to the course of events that followed the cutting off by war of the aniline imports from Germany and the supply of potash from the same source, with the resulting "tremendous impulse given to the expansion of domestic manufacture." The Department might as well have made its acknowledgment apply to a long list of commodities heretofore supplied largely from abroad but cut off by the war "with resulting tremendous impulse to the expansion of domestic manufacture."

In the acknowledgment of facts as they exist, the Department seems to have made a complete confession. In expression of opinions it does not go so far, for it says that it "does not believe that the cost of production in the warring countries of Europe will be lowered as a result of the war, or that there will be danger from that source to the holding of new markets already gained." In view of the fact that the Department's opinions have been found erroneous so many times in the past, there will be little disposition on the part of the business men of the United States to accept the mere opinions of the Department as a guarantee against the return of exactly the same conditions which the Department now admits were unfortunate for this country and which the war alone served to overthrow.

Upon the close of the war, millions of men will return to active industry and the removal of the shipping embargo will release a vast quantity of manufactured articles now held in Germany because of the destruction of that country's merchant marine. These are facts which the Department will be compelled eventually to admit, along with other admissions reluctuantly made.

SALT INDUSTRY BIG ASSET TO STATE

Ten years ago practically all the table salt used in the State of California came from Liverpool, London. Small and infrequent shipments came from the east, but as the salt could be brought by water from England cheaper than it could be shipped across the continent by rail, the bulk of the business went to the British Isles.

Today, however, the many thousands of dollars spent by the housewife for table salt is kept right in California. For today there are four large refineries on the San Francisco Bay manufacturing refined salt, making a product that cannot be surpassed in the world.

The California factories produce some 30,000 tons of refined salt annually, amounting to $300,000. As there are no long freight haul charges to pay, you are able to secure a better product, and at a cheaper price than was possible before the advent of these factories.

In addition to the salt manufactured and consumed in this State, these manufacturers ship great quantities into other states of the Union, and even export to Australia and other foreign countries. The sale of this salt outside the State brings thousands and thousands of dollars here to be spent for California labor and California supplies.

A community that imports more than it exports must go into debt to the rest of the world. A community in which the imports equal the exports is just holding its own. But a community that exports more than it imports, is prosperous, everyone within that community is prosperous.

If the bulk of the goods manufactured in the east, and sold in this State, were manufactured in California, as is salt, millions of dollars now going east every year might be kept in circulation here.

You buy California salt as a matter of course. Why not buy other California-made goods, where the price and quality are equal to the eastern product? Patronize your home town merchant. Buy goods "Made in California" and you will do your share in making your community, your state and yourself prosperous.

WHY YOU ARE NERVOUS

The nervous system is the alarm system of the human body.

In perfect health we hardly realize that we have a network of nerves, but when health is ebbing, when strength is declining, the same nervous system gives the alarm in headaches, tiredness, dreamful sleep, irritability and unless corrected, leads straight to a breakdown.

To correct nervousness, Scott's Emulsion is exactly what you should take; its rich nutriment gets into the blood and rich blood feeds the tiny nerve-cells while the whole system responds to its refreshing tonic force. It is free from alcohol.

EXCITING CHASE AFTER BOLD ROBER GANG; ONE CAPTURED

that he had purchased it from a tramp on the road that day.

Sheriff Byrnes is certain that the three men are responsible for the Calpella postoffice case, having traveled down the track from Laughlin Friday afternoon and waited on the river near Calpella for night fall in which to rob the postoffice. The arrested man refuses to make any statement, saying that he knows nothing at all about the trouble at the section house or at Calpella.

The search for the two escapes led the sheriff from here to Sonoma county, and the following is taken from the Santa Rosa Press Democrat of Monday regarding the pursuit of the bandits in that county.

Using horses as their shield the two bandits pursued by Sheriff Ralph Byrnes and who escaped after he had caught one of their gang with the aid of bloodhounds following the attempted burglary of the Calpella postoffice, in Mendocino county, on Saturday morning protected themselves from further bullets from the sheriff's rifle on Sunday afternoon on a hillside across from the Asti vineyards, in northern Sonoma county, and managed to get away.

Sheriff Byrnes motored down from Ukiah Sunday morning with a man he knew and who could recognize the bandits. As they passed Asti, Sheriff Byrnes noticed two men sitting alongside the road eating some food. He thought, of course, that the man with him had also noticed them. So he remarked:

"Those fellows answer the description, don't you think?"

"I never saw them," was the reply.

Sheriff Byrnes stopped his car a short distance ahead and turned back. The men were not there. The sheriff spotted them running across a vineyard. He gave chase and they ran all the harder, having a good start.

He ran up a hill and down another and then up again. Then the sheriff fired at them in an endeavor to check them, if possible. Then the men made a break for a band of horses in the pasture and got in among them, and by dodging in and out among the animals, successfully eluded capture by bullets, anyway.

Then Sheriff Byrnes telephoned the sheriff's office in Santa Rosa, and Deputy Sheriffs Don McIntosh and Phil Varner were hurried to the scene by Don Patterson in an automobile. A consultation was held by the officers and an endeavor was made to head off the bandits. Deputy Sheriff Chris Reynolds came to Santa Rosa after 10 o'clock Monday night and immediately went south. He said that a couple of men, presumably the bandits, had been in Healdsburg, and their actions had attracted attention, and they were believed to be making for Petaluma, and the officers had determined to head them off, if possible.

Sheriff Byrnes and Deputy Clay returned to Ukiah Wednesday night, having last seen the men at Asti, although the search was kept up as far as Petaluma.

C. A. BERNHARD AS HIGH SCHOOL TRUSTEE

Several friends have asked that I come out for the office of High School Trustee. After thinking it over I replied that it is an office I would like to have. Of course there is no money remuneration in it. However, all my life I have been imbued with the idea that highest duty of the individual toward society is service.

I believe that if the office requires experience in school affairs, business ability and a singleness and honesty of purpose, I can meet the demands.

I taught school 19 years; six being in private normal and business schools and 13 in California high schools, eight of which were in the Ukiah High. My ideal would be progress along economical lines. We should have a better school than we now have because our community is improving and population increasing. The schools should not be allowed to fall behind.

If the people believe this view of the matter to be correct, I will appreciate their votes and I assure them my very best endeavor.

IN REGARD TO THE ELECTION NEXT MONTH

WHAT WE VOTE ON IN OCTOBER—ELEVEN PROPOSITIONS WILL APPEAR UPON THE BALLOT

We have been asked to outline exactly what we are to vote upon at the approaching October election. In answer thereto the Oakland Tribune offers the following:

Eleven general propositions will appear upon the ballot, the first two by referendum and the others by legislative initiation. The latter all propose amendments to the constitution.

Proposition 1, by referendum, involves the non-partisan legislation passed by the last Legislature, wherein it was enacted that all state officers—as now with other county and municipal officers—should be elected without party nominating conventions. This enactment declares that as to United States Senators, Representatives in Congress, congressional party committeemen, delegates to national party conventions, and presidential electors, their choice shall be determined as heretofore, in convention, through party action, but that as to all other officers non-partisanship shall prevail. This act repeals the primary law of 1913.

Proposition 2, by referendum, pertains to the recently enacted law governing the form, size and manner of printing ballots, and is commonly referred to as the Form of Ballot law.

Propositions 3 to 11, both inclusive, pertain to constitutional amendments proposed by the Legislature. They are of both Senate and Assembly origin.

Proposition 3 proposes to make the terms of all Superior Judges, except those elected to fill unexpired terms, twelve years, and makes them subject to recall, impeachment or removal, for cause.

Proposition 4 proposes that when the term of a Judge of the Supreme Court, District Court of Appeals, or Superior Court expires on the first Monday in January, following a general election, the person appointed by the Governor to fill the vacancy shall hold for the remainder of the unexpired term for which the Judge was elected.

Proposition 5 pertains to the general subject of rural credits; proposes a land colonization system, rural credits in aid of agriculture, authorizes bond issues secured by farm mortgages, and defines the status thereof; provides for a state trust fund and authorizes trustees thereof to issue bonds, guaranteed by the State, upon State security and to deal generally in rural credit bonds.

Proposition 6 pertains to deposit of public moneys, State, county or municipal, and provides that these may be deposited in banks under such conditions as may be provided by law adopted by initiative or by two-thirds vote of both houses of the Legislature, approved by the Governor, subject to referendum.

Proposition 7 pertains to initiative and referendum petitions, provides means for preserving their inviolability, and proposes that whenever it is undertaken by initiative to create a bonded indebtedness a two-thirds vote shall be required.

Proposition 8 pertains to condemnation for public purposes by State, county or municipal unit, of "neighboring property" within its limits, in addition to that required for immediate improvement, and permits counties or municipalities to condemn lands within ten miles beyond their boundaries for certain purposes, with consent of other county or municipality if such lands lie therein.

Proposition 9 pertains to a complete reorganization of our present taxing system and proposes that the new system be administered by a Tax Commission. It continues in office the present Equalization Board members until January 1919.

Proposition 10 proposes exemption from taxation, in addition to church property, of all buildings and so much real property on which the same are situated as may be required for convenient use and occupation of such buildings when the same are used "solely and exclusively for social purposes for the benefit of the organized religious body using said property for such purpose."

Proposition 11 pertains to county charters and contains provisions defining what may be made charter rights under such proposed amendment.

VIEWS OF KEESLING ON COMING ELECTION

To Republicans of California:

At a special election there will be submitted to a vote of the people two bills passed at the recent session of the Legislature, intended to extend the system of Non-partisanship now prevailing in municipalities and counties in this State, to all State elective offices. It is claimed that it will only add a few non-political officials to the long list already elected under the Non-partisan system, but those "few" in contra-distinction to the "long list already elected" by the Non-partisan system, are STATE officials.

Convinced of the importance of retaining the Partisan plan I earnestly advise your cooperation to defeat the Non-partisan plan.

You must thoroughly appreciate and emphasize the fact that there is only one issue involved, namely, SHALL STATE OFFICERS BE ELECTED UPON A PARTISAN OR UPON A NON-PARTISAN SYSTEM?

Do not be confused by false issues. Befogging the real issue is frequently resorted to by the adroit advocate. You will be told that the opposition to this legislation is an old organization, Republican machine plot and that only the old organization standpatters oppose the Non-partisan system. This is not so because patriotic independent thinkers among the Republicans and Democrats as well oppose it. However, that is not an issue. When occasion demands unscrupulous Party leaders will be "kicked out" as has been done heretofore. You will be told that, as all the Non-partisan bills have not been submitted, confusion will result. That confusion will be LESS INJURIOUS than the effect of the Non-partisan system. That is not an issue. Let that not stand in your way.

It is claimed for the Non-partisan system that it will result in "humane and enlightened administration and in efficient business management." Experience does not sustain the probability of continuous efficient service, much less improvement, by virtue of the Non-partisan plan. The present Non-partisan, direct primary system of election of Judges, due to the necessary personal solicitation of votes has certainly not resulted in improving the character of applicants for judical positions, but on the contrary has dissuaded many good men and it has been a disheartening handicap to those who have been conscientious enough to submit to the present day method of campaigning. It has also lessened the dignity of and respect for the bench.

I believe that the proposed Non-partisan system could be successful only under conditions similar to the old town meeting system where the attendance of every citizen was probable. Naturally under such a condition the qualifications of each were known to the others. It is improbable that the average citizen of a state so extensive as California will be POSSESSED OF FACTS sufficient to qualify himself to judge the qualifications of a candidate for STATE office.

Candidates should be selected by Parties by some method more reasonable than the present one, but safeguarding the rights of electors. This would make the Party a guarantor of its candidate and fix responsibility. It would afford the people of the state a selection from at least two, and probably more, Party candidates.

Parties are dependent upon efficient administration for success and that insures on the average a better class of candidates from which a satisfactory choice may be made than will be afforded under the proposed system. The intelligent voter will not be confined within Party lines if his Party candidate is unsatisfactory, thereby disposing of the contention that Parties inject false issues of federal questions into state elections.

How would the person of ordinary means make a campaign under the proposed Non-partisan system? It would require the support of wealthy friends, or others of influence, and the candidate would be, owing to his human instincts, more or less under obligation to those who contributed to his campaign, and it would be a fruitful field of activity for those seeking domination of government for ulterior purposes. What guarantee would there be, the public having relieved itself of such dominated officials, that the succeeding officials would not be the same? And there may be still another result, selections of candidates for the primaries by Parties organized without safeguards of the character intended to be insured by recent legislation directed against boss control. The Non-partisan system would annul every reform directed to correct that evil.

The natural result would be that incumbents, by reason of their state-wide acquaintance due to incumbency, would have a tremendous advantage over the non-office holding candidate.

It is impossible in limited space to offer all or a complete argument against the Non-partisan system. The preservation of parties within states for the maintenance of the integrity of those parties nationally affords another weighty reason for opposing the Non-partisan plan.

Finally, with reference to the campaign, it will be necessary to conduct it without sufficient funds to carry on even a necessary educational campaign. County Committees, therefore, are urged to cooperate with local State Committeemen and organize effort to maintain Party government. No doubt some assistance will be afforded by the Joint Committee having the Referendum campaign in charge.

Respectfully submitted,
F. V. Keesling
Chairman, Republican State Central Committee.
